

CLASS OF 1974

Alison Levin Bishop, Class of 1974, Beta

I've been living in Sarasota since 1981. I became involved in my family's contemporary furniture store, Living Walls. My husband Mike joined me in the business in the early 90's. We now own the store which is located on the first block of Main Street, nearest Marina Jack. We've been in this location since 1986. I do interior design as well as all the retail functions of running a small business. Retail is pretty time consuming especially when you do as great a job as we try to do for our customers. For many of our customers we've become a tour stop for their out of town guests. We what we are doing, and invite anyone to come by and visit and check us out.

Mike and I celebrate our 25th anniversary this year. We have 3 sons. The first, Zev just graduated from Florida State in May and his brother Evan, will graduate in August from University of North Florida. They are excited to be enjoying some of the best years of their lives. Our youngest, Jared, attended Pine View from grade 2-10. He is now at MCC and plans to go to Florida State next year sometime.

I enjoy hiking and birding and take the opportunity as often as I can, which is too infrequent. Judy Wertheimer Kenley and I have been hiking together annually since 1996 with a group of 10 women. We've been to some of the best National Parks. This year we are hiking in Southwest Pennsylvania at a State Park called Ohiopyle. It is close to Falling Water, Frank Lloyd Wright's acclaimed house built for the Kaufman (Department Store) family, and I am looking forward to visiting. The year my family moved from Pittsburgh to Florida, when I joined Pine View's Beta Class, the field trip would have been to Falling Water and I always felt I missed it. Thirty seven years later, I get my field trip.

Merrie Hevrdejs Clarke was a beloved member of class of 77. Below is from the NY Times.

Published: May 10, 2007

CLARKE--Merrie Hevrdejs, 48, died on Saturday, May 5, at the Connecticut Hospice in Branford after a courageous battle against breast cancer. Merrie remains in the hearts of her husband, Richard H. Clarke, of Westport; her brother, Frank J. Hevrdejs, of Houston and Pebble Beach, California; and her sister, Patricia M. Hevrdejs, of Portland, Oregon. Merrie was an accomplished designer with numerous high - profile projects to her credit - but her greatest source of pride was her two sons, Julian Patrick Clarke, age 12, and Sean McLean Clarke, age 10, also of Westport. She devoted countless hours to supporting them in their educational and athletic endeavors, learning to love the game of baseball, especially: She will remain, forever and always, their angel in the outfield. Merrie earned a degree in architecture from Washington University in St. Louis and worked as a senior designer at KPF Interior Architects in New York City on projects including the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas and the ABC building on Columbus Avenue in Manhattan. She also worked for the Washington, D.C., San Francisco, and New York City offices of Studios Architecture, most recently as an associate principal. While living in Northern California, she established her own firm, M Interiors, as well as the Clarke Powell Design Studio, and was an instructor of design at the California College of the Arts in San Francisco. Merrie also brought her high professional standards and unstinting energy to philanthropic and volunteer work, including as a member of the boards of the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company and the Headlands Center for the Arts in Sausalito, California, as well as to projects for the St. John's Episcopal Church Building Committee in Ross, California. Merrie's parents, Beatrice and Frank Hevrdejs, and sister Jill predeceased her. Merrie will be remembered with a great and eternal love by both family members and the enormous group of people lucky enough to have called her a friend. A memorial service for Merrie Hevrdejs Clarke will be held on May 18 at 1 pm at St. Bartholomew's Church in New York City. Donations in her memory may be made to the Merrie Hevrdejs and Richard H. Clarke Cancer Research Endowment with checks to the Yale Cancer Center, 157 Church Street, New Haven, CT 06510. Development Director: christopher.pates@yale.edu

Hi...just an item for publication in your next PV newsletter...AND...a huge thank you for all you've done over the years to produce the newsletter and keep us all informed...thanks! Jane Zuknick Morgan '78

Attention Fellow Zetas (Class of '78)...30th Reunion News!

If you remember John Travolta as Vinnie Barbarino, not Chili Palmer...Dan Akroyd and Steve Martin as "Two Wild and Crazy Guys", not two middle-aged dudes making cameos to keep their SAG cards...if you remember (arguably) the peak year for Disco and that Ruby Tuesday's was a disco on St. Armands not a chain restaurant...if you remember leisure suits, mood rings, pet rocks, troll dolls, Rocky Horror Picture Show, 8-Track tapes...if you remember hip huggers (that your kids now claim as their own), a time when Barry Manilow and Olivia Newton-John routinely topped the charts...when Meat Loaf was a singer, not the blue plate special at the Woolworth's lunch counter...then your memory is still hanging in there. Groovy! Okay, I'll stop now...can't believe it's time once again for a reunion...our 30th (yes, you heard that right) is in the works for 2008! An email will go out soon with more information. Please help us by sending along email addresses and/or contact information for fellow classmates. Your help will be greatly appreciated! My husband and I are retiring June 30, 2007, so perhaps we'll be Sarasota residents again by the time you read this. That should make the planning for this reunion go a little more smoothly! I'll be keeping the same email address...I hope to hear from all of you soon...please check in! Jane Zuknick Morgan, Janie624@aol.com

Kelly McCall Branson has been married for 27 years to Bruce Branson of the Pine View Class of 1978. She writes that their daughter Meg graduated from UNC Chapel Hill with a degree in journalism and their son McCall just finished his first year at New College. Bruce and Kelly spent a month in Prague this summer where Bruce is teaching his NC State Master of Accounting students at the Prague Insitute.

Dr, Margaret Eggers writes: My husband and I will celebrate our 21st anniversary this April. We've lived in Oceanside (CA) for about 15 years now and really enjoy it. I work full time as an independent environmental consultant and teach Geology and Oceanography part time at the local junior collegr. We have taken lots of trips within California - to Owens Valley, Yosemite, the Sierra, Anza Borrego etc. where I enjoy the rocks and John takes large format photographs (black and white). Yes, like Ansel Adams - check out his work at www.johndclark.com. I built John a dark room in the house so he does all his own development and printing. Life is good in San Diego County for a geologist (me), a chemist (John) and a schnauzer (Weston). Note: Margaret got her PhD from the University of South Carolina in Columbia.

Shiela Greene This email is from Sheila (Dickman) Greene, class of '81. I recently received the alumni newsletter. Future mailings can be sent to my current email address - sngreene6@gmail.com.

As for an update on my post high school life...

I celebrate my 25th wedding anniversary this December and have lived in Orlando, Florida the last 18 years. My 1st child, Matt, was married in April of this year to a wonderful young lady from Puyallup, Washington, and they will be attending FSU this fall. My 3rd child, Donovan, graduated high school. All 3 of my older children received scholarships upon graduation. I will also begin in the fall of 2007 my 17th year home schooling my children. I still have 3 at home. Leah is a junior in high school, but will probably graduate this next year as she has enough credits to do so. Quincy is a 6th grader and Garrett begins 1st grade. My older daughter, Abi, will be attending BYU-Utah - as I did after high school myself - in January 2008. She has been attending BYU-Idaho the last 2 years. Life is busy, to say the least, but rewarding for me as a stay-at-home mom. In my spare time, I like to read, scrapbook, garden, do home improvement projects with my husband, and stay actively involved in my church. I have also been involved helping other families start home schooling. Our family recently had the opportunity to visit with Nancy (Showalter) Stoll - also class of '81 - and her family when they came to Florida. Their oldest child graduated from high school this year too. It was great fun to spend time together again like old times. We both agree we wish we lived closer to each other. They still reside in Virginia.

Thanks for the updates. By the way, I wish I knew how Judy Stratton, my French teacher of 8 years, is doing. I would love to hear from her. I hope the rest of my former classmates are happy and doing well.

CLASS OF 1982

John G. Crabtree graduated from the University of Florida in 1987 and then from the UF College of Law in 1990. He is currently an attorney in the Miami area. He is married to Erin and they have a set of twins (John and Faith).

CLASS OF 1984

Josephine Gilmore graduated from Grinnell College in 1988 and from Suffolk University with an MBA in 1997 and as MIM in 2001. Josephine writes: I have recently moved around in FedEx again, now taking a job representing our Europe, Middle East, Africa region on global marketing programs. I love Fed Ex and I finally put down some roots again having bought a house last summer (in Tennessee).

CLASS OF 1985

I have not sent an update since our 20 -year reunion almost 2 years ago (when I was VERY pregnant), so I thought I would write a quick note.

Jeff and I welcomed the birth of our son, Skyler Pierce, on August 3, 2005.

While I was on maternity leave in December 2005 I was appointed by the Bush Administration to be Counselor to the Honorable Michael O. Leavitt . Previously, I served as Associate Commissioner for External Relations at FDA. As the principal policy advisor to the Secretary of the US Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) on matters relating to science and public health, my portfolio includes oversight and coordination of the four major science and public health operating divisions of HHS: the National Institutes of Health (NIH), the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ), as well as development and implementation of Administration initiatives related to genomics/Personalized Health Care and Prevention. Prior to my political appointments, I was an attorney with Mayer, Brown, Rowe & Maw LLP in Washington, D.C.

Outside of my government service, Jeff and I own several veterinary practices (Frederick Emergency Animal Hospital LLC, Frederick Veterinary Referral Group LLC, and Old Farm Veterinary Hospital LLC, also in Frederick, MD). We are currently developing a second small animal/exotic practice, Bennett Creek Animal Hospital, LLC, to be located in Clarksburg, MD (a bit closer to our home in Rockville), which we hope to open in the Summer of 2008. Skyler (our future veterinarian) enjoys "taking care" of our two dogs, Kramer and Scooby Doo. He is especially fond of splashing in their big water bowl!

My new personal email is sheila.walcoff@gmail.com I attached a fairly recent photo of the three of us (it is all but impossible to get a photo of all of us together:-)

It was great to see everyone at our 20-year reunion and I look forward to the next one!

Class of 1986

Deena Monchick graduated in 2006 from the Co[penhagen Business School. She writes: It has been a very busy decade. In 2001 I fled California and the dotcom crash to go to Germany to study International Business at the European University Viadrina. I spent a year of that time living right in the heart of Berlin. It is a fantastic city. Two years later I went to Copenhagen Business School (CBS) in Denmark as a "German" exchange student.

I fell in love with CBS, so I stayed there to finish my degree.

During this time I also met my wonderful partner, Rick Thompson. He left San Francisco to join me overseas.

Just before I took my last set of exams at CBS, we found out I was pregnant. A few months later we came back to San Francisco. Our daughter, Celestiel Thomchick, was born in January of 2006.

My consulting business is going surprisingly well but I won't bore you with those details.

I saw my old friend and classmate David LaMotte and caught one of his concerts a few years ago. He's as wonderful a guy as I remember. I recommend you catch his show if he's ever playing in your town.

I've lost track of a few good friends over the years and I'm looking forward to getting back in touch with them. If you think you are one of these missing people...find me!

Class of 1987

Ann Piscitelli is living in Nokomis and working hard to complete all the plans for the Class of 1987 reunion to be held in November. Hope all will contact her as soon as possible. www.pvclassof87.com
At this point we have a tentative schedule set for the weekend of Nov. 9 - 11, 2007:

Friday, Nov. 9th - Meet and Greet Cocktail Reception Upstairs at The Gator Club, located on Main St. in Sarasota. We have reserved the space from 5:30 - 8:30, but can stay as long as we want.

Saturday, November 10th - Dinner and Dancing at The Classic Car Museum (formerly Belm's), 6pm - midnite. Dine right next to antique cars then head to the open air atrium for drinks and dancing.

Sunday, November 11th - 10am - 2pm, Family Beach Picnic at the Pavillion on Siesta Key

Our goal is to keep the costs for the entire weekend at $150 per person, or less. If you have any local connections that could help save money, please let us know! If you are coming from out of town with your children and need assistance with childcare, again please let us know.

Most importantly, keep checking this site, and sending it to everyone you can find! We will try to update more often, and hope to have a forum page up soon as well as links to all our venues. Also in the near future we will send out a registration form with payment dates and exact itinerary.

Our Missing Alumni list is shrinking, but we need your help. If you are in contact with any of these people, please let them know we are looking for them: Katie Lewis, Rick Meadows, Gabi Pack, Bill Short, & Alyson Taylor

Hope Buchholtz O'Reilly graduated from USF with a BA in art history and from USF with her Master's in art history. She is married and had a daughter Fiona Hope O'Reilly who is two. Hope is Director of Development and Communications with the Bogliasco Foundation. She writes: I have a new job working for a foundation that runs a study center for the arts and humanities for individuals from around the world working on advanced scholarly or creative projects. My job involves several trips a year with my husband and daughter to the Italian Riviera where we stay in a gorgeous turn of the century villa right on the Mediterranean. So I have no complaints these days. She is looking forward to the 20 year reunion.

CLASS OF 1992

Sarah Cartwright received a PhD in art history from the Institute of Fine Arts at New York University in May, 2007. She has been awarded the two year Mellon post-doctoral fellowship at Columbia University in NYC.

Louis Levitt founded the Sybarite Chamber Players in 1997,

(then known as the Sybarite Quintet,) and since then he has performed with the Pittsburgh Symphony, the New World Symphony and was principal of the Springfield Symphony. He is currently a section member of the Florida West Coast Symphony. Chamber music appearances include: Aspen Salon Concert Series, Salida Chamber Series, Aspen Inside Music Series, LaSalle Chamber Music Series Cincinnati, Ohio, as well as a guest artist appearance at the Telluride Music Festival. He has appeared as a soloist performing Frank Proto's Carmen Fantasy with orchestra and Jean Francaix's Mozart New Look. Mr. Levitt received his Bachelor's Degree and Artist Diploma from the Cincinnati College Conservatory of Music where he studied with Albert Laszlo. He has also received multiple fellowships to the Aspen Music Festival where he studied with Paul Ellison, Albert Laszlo, Eugene Levinson and Stuart Sankey. Mr. Levitt is originally from Sarasota FL, where he studied with John Miller.

Melissa Mace was at Pine View from 1989 to 1994 when her family moved to Chicago in the summer of 1994. She finished her high school through a private school's independent study program (Clonlara School) allowing for travel, etc, so Pine view was her last campus school and she loves to keep in touch.

CLASS OF 1999

It's been 8 years since I graduated from Pine View and I thought it was time to give an update for the newsletter:

I graduated from University of Colorado in '03 and moved to New York in '04 to begin law school at New York University. I'll be graduating this May and taking the NY bar exam this summer. In the fall, I'll be moving to Tampa to begin a federal clerkship on the US Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit. After that, I'll be moving back to New York to begin work as an associate at the law firm Cleary Gottlieb Steen and Hamilton. If anyone wants to contact me, especially those of you living in the Tampa area, please do so: barzell@nyu.edu.

What's New?

I am currently interning in the PR department with the Sarasota Convention and Visitors Bureau. I have been working on many exciting projects, such as Savor Sarasota Restaurant Week. This is my 5th internship to date-the previous ones have been at Creative Loafing, the Public Defender's Office (during Externship at Pine View), Benedict & Company Public Relations, and SRQ Magazine, where I had full-length feature articles published. I'm a senior at USF and I'll be graduating in May 2008. I can hardly believe it-it feels like I was a Pine View senior yesterday! After graduation, I plan to move to New York City-hopefully to pursue a career at a Conde Nast publication.
